CONTENDERE GUILTY

FINDINGThere being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:

Unauthorized Access of Protected Computer in violation of 18 U.S.C. Section 1030 as charged in Count 1 of the Information and Extortion in violation of 18 U.S.C. Section 875(d) as charged in Counts 2, 3 and 4 of the Information

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of: Eighteen (18) Months on each of Counts 1, 2, 3 and 4 of the Information, all such terms to run concurrently to each other.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $400, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Pursuant to Guideline Section 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons conduct a mental health evaluation of the defendant and provide all necessary treatment.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three (3) years. This term consists of 3 years on Count 1 and one (1) year on each of Counts 2, 3 and 4 of the Information, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office and General Order 05-02;
2. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
3. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant;
4. Before using any computer or computer-related device capable or accessing the internet, screen name, password, email account or ISP for the first time, defendant shall notify his Probation Officer. Computers and computer-related devices include but are not limited to, personal computers, personal data assistants

- (PDAs), internet appliances, electronic games, and cellular telephones, as well as their peripheral equipment, that can access or can be modified to access the internet, electronic bulletin boards, and other computers, or similar media;
5. After notifying his Probation Officer about a particular computer, computer-related device, screen name, password, email account or ISP, defendant need not notify the officer about subsequent use of that particular item. Defendant shall, however, notify his Probation Officer of any additions to, removals from, upgrades of, updates of, reinstallations of, repairs of, or other modifications of the hardware or software on any computers, computer-related devices, or peripheral equipment in the aforementioned items within one week of the change;
 6. All computers, computer-related devices and their peripheral equipment used by defendant shall be subject to search and seizure by making a mirror image of the device or searching the computer on-site. The defendant shall not hide or encrypt files or data without prior approval of the Probation Officer;
 7. The defendant shall possess and use only those computers and computer-related devices, screen user names, passwords, email accounts, cloud storage accounts, and internet service providers (ISPs), which have been disclosed to the Probation Officer upon commencement of supervision. Any changes or additions are to be disclosed to the Probation Officer prior to the first use. Computers and computer-related devices include are personal computers, personal data assistants (PDAs), internet appliances, electronic games, cellular telephones, and digital storage media ,as well as their peripheral equipment, that can access, or can be modified to access, the internet, electronic bulletin boards, and other computers;
 8. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the Computer Monitoring Program. The defendant shall pay the cost of the Computer Monitoring Program, in an amount not to exceed $32 per month per device connected to the internet;
 9. The defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the treatment by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer;
 10. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's psychological/psychiatric disorders to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer;
 11. The defendant shall not knowingly contact, or attempt to contact any of the victims in this case or their families, including but not limited to their parents, siblings, other relatives, any spouse or significant other with whom the victims may share intimate relationship (whether existing now or during the pendency of any term of supervised release), and any children of the victims (whether existing now or during the pendency of any term of supervised release), directly or indirectly by any means, including but not limited to in person, by mail, telephone, email, text message, or otherwise via the internet or other electronic means, or through a third party;
 12. The defendant shall not attempt to locate the victims or the victims' families or attempt to obtain information concerning the whereabouts, phone numbers, email addresses, or other personal identifiers of the victims or the victims' families;
 13. The defendant shall remain at least 100 yards away from the victims at all times. If any contact occurs, the defendant shall immediately leave the area of contact, and report the contact to the Probation Officer;
 14. The defendant shall not possess, or attempt to possess, any materials, whether in hard copy, digital, electronic, or any other form, that depict sexually explicit and/or nude images of the victims and/or that contain any personal identifying information, including any access devices and bank/credit card account numbers, or the victims;
 15. The defendant shall submit to a search, at any time, with or without warrant, and by any law enforcement

- or probation officer, of the defendant's person and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, and effects upon reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of supervision or unlawful conduct by the defendant, or by any probation officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision functions;
16. The Court requests that the Probation Officer impose the most stringent form of supervision, excluding home detention.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

The Court authorizes the Probation Officer to disclose the Presentence Report, and/or any previous mental health evaluations or reports, to the treatment provider. The treatment provider may provide information (excluding the Presentence report), to State or local social service agencies (such as the State of California, Department of Social Service), for the purpose of the client's rehabilitation.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12 noon, on June 16, 2014. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time to the United States Court House, 411 West Fourth Street, Suite 4170, Santa Ana, California 92701-4516.

The Court ORDERS the defendant's bond exonerated upon surrender.

The Court recommends placement in a facility in a camp type facility - Taft if appropriate and available.

The Court advises the defendant of his right to appeal.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.

USA vs. Jared James AbrahamsDocket No.: SACR 13-00199-JVS

The defendant shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below).

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF PROBATION AND SUPERVISED RELEASE

While the defendant is on probation or supervised release pursuant to this judgment:

1. The defendant shall not commit another Federal, state or local crime;
2. the defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the written permission of the court or probation officer;
3. the defendant shall report to the probation officer as directed by the court or probation officer and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month;
4. the defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer;
5. the defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities;
6. the defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons;
7. the defendant shall notify the probation officer at least 10 days prior to any change in residence or employment;
8. the defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any narcotic or other controlled substance, or any paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician;
9. the defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed or administered;
10. the defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;
11. the defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer;
12. the defendant shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
13. the defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court;
14. as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to conform the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement;
15. the defendant shall, upon release from any period of custody, report to the probation officer within 72 hours;
16. and, for felony cases only: not possess a firearm, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon.

The defendant will also comply with the following special conditions pursuant to General Order 01-05 (set forth below).

STATUTORY PROVISIONS PERTAINING TO PAYMENT AND COLLECTION OF FINANCIAL SANCTIONS

The defendant shall pay interest on a fine or restitution of more than $2,500, unless the court waives interest or unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth (15th) day after the date of the judgment pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3612(f)(1). Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3612(g). Interest and penalties pertaining to restitution, however, are not applicable for offenses completed prior to April 24, 1996.

If all or any portion of a fine or restitution ordered remains unpaid after the termination of supervision, the defendant shall pay the balance as directed by the United States Attorney's Office. 18 U.S.C. §3613.

The defendant shall notify the United States Attorney within thirty (30) days of any change in the defendant's mailing address or residence until all fines, restitution, costs, and special assessments are paid in full. 18 U.S.C. §3612(b)(1)(F).

The defendant shall notify the Court through the Probation Office, and notify the United States Attorney of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay a fine or restitution, as required by 18 U.S.C. §3664(k). The Court may also accept such notification from the government or the victim, and may, on its own motion or that of a party or the victim, adjust the manner of payment of a fine or restitution-pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3664(k). See also 18 U.S.C. §3572(d)(3) and for probation 18 U.S.C. §3563(a)(7).

Payments shall be applied in the following order:

1. Special assessments pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3013;
2. Restitution, in this sequence:
 - Private victims (individual and corporate),
 - Providers of compensation to private victims,
 - The United States as victim;
3. Fine;
4. Community restitution, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3663(c); and
5. Other penalties and costs.
